Strathblane - births 1672-1854; marriages 1678-1854; deaths 1673-1732, 1820-46. These include some portions copied in 1819 which covered some of the parts missing or defective in the original registers. Smith - see infra - refers to these corrections-or copies made by Gavin Cullen, parochial schoolmaster & session clerk. "The Killearn & Kilpatrick registers of baptisms, in both of which many Strathblane people are mentioned, begin respectively in 1694 & 1691." (Smith's reference - p 244, footnote 2).

Smith, i.e. "The Parish of Strathblane and its inhabitants from early times - a chapter of Lennox History" by John Guthrie Smith, 1886; this is an outstanding work for the very impressive amount of genealogical history comprised in it, supplemented by a fully detailed Index of Persons (pp 365 to 389) and another of Places (pp 390 to 392); there

Notes, contd

Smith, contd. is a complete list of tombstone inscriptions as recorded then by his daughters; the inscriptions at pp 201-14 ante are based on Smith's list, to which subsequent additions as seen in 1969 have been made;
most of the old stones recording initials without names, and some others, had disappeared by 1969, either removed or, as for no. 150, been turfed over; the total clearances seem to have been about a hundred stones); Chapters III & IV - is the history of ownership of various estates from the 17th century the following names of lairds are to be found - Bryson, Buchanan, Craig, Cunningham, Douglas, Duncan, Edmonstone, Foyer, Graham, Guthrie, Lyle, McIndoe, Provan, Robison, Smith & Stirling.
Chapter VII - has one or more paragraphs on each minister from John Guik, c. 1540.
Chapter IX - mentions the following schoolmasters (who were usually also session clerks) from 1682 to 1886 - John Foyer, David Risk, Walter Buchanan, Wm Neil, Wm Bowie, Duncan McFarlane, John Ferguson, John Reston, And Miller, Benjamin Hepburn, Gavin Cullen, And Kessen, Parlane McFarlane & John McEwan.
Teinds records with names of heritors - about 30 in each case - and names of properties for the returns of 1758, 1798 & 1830-31 are given at pp 341-3 and valuation rolls for 1831 & 1884-85 at pp 346-7.

Rogers (see Preface) includes only inscription 223 p 213 ante.
